Clever and Crafty

I dont have business cards.... and to this day it has not caught me out .. however, there are many times when a mum needs my number for a play date, rugby car pooling or a well deserved coffee

I found this funky new business Mums Card the other night ... and am in love... gorgeous too cute... too cool for school! (lol) ... easy to buy... and inexpensive... (also a great wee gift for a new mummy!) ...

Tanya (the owner) also makes super convenient gift tags ... no styly mumma should be without them in the pressie draw !

As a wee mid week (hump day) treat we have a super adorable tin of 20 gift tags to give away - your choice of standard or Xmas ...

Simply comment below on your fave Mums Card or Pressie Tag design.

Winner announced Monday 31st August 2009

How cool! I love these.

I especially love the second one you have shown (mummy card) with the orange blossom/branch on the top right - too funky!

Gorgeous xx

I too love the elephants!

I can't go passed an elephant, one with a baby, even better!

I can't find the gift cards on the site though, are for sale anywhere? They are so simple and cute!

Fantastic idea, really good size and great price range when we are trying to save money in these tough times. The Christmas ones will be fabulous this year on all the presents. Fabulous packaging for the 40 gift tags. A handy box to have in the cupboard. Very clever and innovative ideas and website.

I keep cards in my handbag to give to other parents when my kids have playdates - soooooooooo much better than scribbling info on scraps of paper or fumbling with the cell phone !!!

The elephants are my favourite - I think I am blocking the notion of Christmas out of my head at the moment !!!
